

PACIFIC PRODUCE

NEWS ALERT

- ❖ New crop of Russet Potatoes now coming from Washington. Prices are elevated this week as we transition.
- ❖ Cilantro prices are increasing this week. Warm weather during the day and cold weather at night is damaging local crops reducing its availability. Expect some quality issues. Market is tight.
- ❖ Same as with Cilantro, Greens prices are increasing due to weather extremes. Expect some quality issues.
- ❖ California Grapefruit is gapping. Prices are high this week.
- ❖ Lemons are very limited and prices remain high. CA crops are done and Chilean product is delayed. 140 lemons are tight. We suggest to substitute for 165 when possible. Due to the shortage, we are mostly stocking standard product. Expect quality issues.
- ❖ Bosc Pears are gapping and will not be available for another three to four weeks. If possible, consider replacing them for Asian pears. We are also seeing the last of the D'Anjou pears. Quality issues may arise. Local Bartlett are expecting to start soon. In the meantime, we suggest to replace them for Comice pears.
- ❖ Garnet Yams are gapping. Medium size is very limited and prices are elevated. Jumbos still available.
